

The Centre organized the First Northern Regional Social Science Congress at Institute of Development Studies, Jaipur from 3rd April 2013 -5th April 2013. M/s Rawat Publication, Jaipur will bring out the edited volume shortly. The presentations shortlisted for publication are as below:-

Issues in Development: Regional Perspectives

Edited by

Surjit Singh and Dhruv Raina

Contents (Tentative)

Introduction Surjit Singh and Dhruv Raina

Economy: Macro and Regional Issues

1. Changing Structure of Rural Economy AK Singh
2. Rural Non Agricultural Enterprises in Uttar Pradesh: Continuity and Change Nripendra Mishra &
Udai Bhan Singh

Urbanization and Governance

3. Delhi's Post Colonial Development Machine: How Can Science and Technology Studies (STS) Help Rethink the "Urban" Leon Morenas
4. Impact of Urbanization on Water Resources in Jaipur KN Joshi
5. Urbanization, Poverty and Health Anjali Dash
6. Development of Urban Rural Fringe Area around Aligarh City Kamal Asif
7. Nowhere Youth In India Kamal Choudhary

Democracy and Development

8. Democratic Governance at Grassroots level and Functioning of Local Political Institutions Yatindra Singh Sisodia
9. Decentralization for Good Governance and Development: Shailender K Hooda
10. In Search of Inclusion: The Role of Muslims in West Bengal's Electoral Politics Abdul Matin

Gender and Development

11. Women as Preservers of Crafts: A Case of Azarak Varsha Joshi
12. Occupational Segregation by Gender: Trends and Explanations Ruchika Rani
13. From Development Induced Displacement to the Verge of Migration:
Displaced Santali Women in Bankura, West Bengal Bhaswati Thakurta
14. Promoting Entrepreneurship among Women in Agriculture Nilabja Ghosh
15. Land Matters: Importance of Land Rights in the Development and Empowerment of Women in Uttarakhand Aradhana Singh
16. Gender, Development and Radicalism: Rise of the Naxalite
Movement in India Kshipra Sharma

Changing Nature of Village Structure and Economy

17. From Colonial Rule to Panchayati Raj: A Study of the Changing Economy in North Indian Village Circa 1930-2010 Devesh Vijay